Join the organisation advancing health and empowering self-care

Our Mission

To advance the health and wellbeing of Australians by ensuring access to safe, reliable, and evidence-based products and solutions.

Consumer Healthcare Products (CHP) Australia is the peak body representing the self-care industry in Australia.

We are dedicated to advancing the self-care sector through education, advocacy, and research. Our work promotes the economic and social value of self-care, safeguards the industry's reputation, and supports consumer education on responsible product use.
